

Michael Dulin
Christmas at Our House
Equity Digital

Taking on the traditional role, Birmingham pianist Michael Dulin's thoughtful music reminds us of every Christmas past. There is enough uniqueness and variety to his solo piano offerings to give us hopes for many a Christmas future. He starts us out with an energetic version of Deck the Halls. You will be inspired to go out and decorate somebody's halls. O Come Emmanuel is an outstanding cut and my favorite on this album. It has deep beauty and a pensiveness that promotes holiday dreams.

Michael's distinctive melodic brand is deeply etched on the glorious tune Joy to the World and his blending of styles teases you like a giant red bow on a tiny package as you listen to Away in the Manger. Dulin's music will introduce your guests and family to the many smiling musical faces of the holidays.
